

Subject: eScholar LLC v. Otis Educational Systems Inc. 04 Civ. 4051 (SCR)
From: "Paul McMenamin" <paul@prm-nylaw.com>
Date: Mon, 26 Jul 2004 13:33:20 -0400
To: <wpclerk@nysd.uscourts.gov>
CC: <tamaracarmichael@hklaw.com>

Dear Clerk of the Court:

We are counsel to plaintiff eScholar LLC in connection with the above-referenced matter. The parties recently entered into a confidentially stipulation and protective order, which agreement, in part, requires that certain documents now be filed under seal with the Court. The original complaint filed with the Court contains certain exhibits that should be removed from the complaint and filed under seal. Specifically, exhibits C through G need to be removed from the complaint and filed under seal.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Please do not hesitate to call me with any questions at (917)312-8334.

Sincerely,
Paul R. McMenamin, Esq. (PM-0180)

Paul R. McMenamin, Esq.
One Rockefeller Plaza, Suite 2702
New York, New York 10020

Direct Dial: (212)421-1349

The Clerk of the Court is hereby Ordered to place the documents designated in the above mentioned Stipulation and Protective Order under seal. Said documents should be moved from the ECS ~~document~~ file and placed under seal.

SO ORDERED
Stephen C. Robinson
STEPHEN C. ROBINSON
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
7/28/04